DO NO HARM

We listen quite a while before we get to the “punch line” of the first reading today: even though it would be an easy thing to do, David will not harm the anointed one of the Lord. We, of course, know that Jesus is the Messiah, the anointed one of God, but the Bible uses this term for many different people. It is scripture’s way of indicating who has been chosen by God for a special place and mission in salvation history.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus presents a greatly enlarged list of those who, as children of God, we should not harm, but love instead: our enemies, those who curse us or do us harm, those who owe us money, the ungrateful, the wicked. The point of Jesus’ teaching is not to encourage these kinds of behaviors in others, but rather to form us in the image of our heavenly Father by increasing our opportunities to love unconditionally, expecting nothing back; to be merciful and forgiving, even when it would be easier not to.

Today’s Readings

First Reading - David found Saul in a deep sleep, but would not harm him (1 Samuel 26:2-7, 9-12, 13, 22-23).

Psalm - The Lord is kind and merciful (Psalm 103).

Second Reading - We shall bear the image of the heavenly Adam (1 Corinthians 15:45-49).

St. Dominic Savio

He is the patron saint of our Parish. He is a saint at nearly 15 years of age. He was educated by St. John Bosco (a.k.a. Don Bosco) at the Oratory of St. Francis de Sales.

For St. Dominic Savio, holiness consists of always being cheerful and of doing one’s ordinary duties, extraordinarily well. His Feast Day is on May 6.

PARISH LIFE

2019 World Gratitude Day for Mother Yvonne Reungoat

Coming attractions!

Each week, a brief blurb will appear in the bulletin to prepare our Salesian family for a very important upcoming event in April: the celebration of World Gratitude Day for Mother Yvonne Reungoat, Superior General of the Daughters of Mary Help of Christians (Salesian Sisters). This major occurrence will take place right here in our very own Southern California.

Every year the entire Institute of the Daughters of Mary Help of Christians, the order of religious women more commonly known as the Salesian Sisters who staff our school and CCD program, select a location where Salesian Sisters are working, as the site for World Gratitude Day for the Superior General. This year, 2019, we are privileged to host this event at our very own parish and school. Stay tuned for more information each week.

St. Patrick’s Day Brunch

Save the Date: March 17, 2019

The Salesian Sisters are sponsoring a brunch on March 17, St. Patrick’s Day. The proceeds of this event will be given as a gift to Mother Yvonne, FMA, Mother General of the Salesian Sisters when she comes for World Gratitude Day on April 26. This will contribute to the establishment of an FMA community that will collaborate with health and social agencies in bringing formation and education to youth who are victims of human trafficking and the migrant crisis. The Sisters thank you in advance for your support.

LIVING STATIONS OF THE CROSS

St. Dominic Savio
Welcomes
Living Stations of the Cross
March 8 at 7:15pm

The Living Stations of the Cross ministry will share a meditative, prayerful, and reflective presentation of our Lord’s Passion, at St. Dominic Savio church. The presentation will take place on Friday evening, March 8th at 7:15pm. We invite you to come watch the presentation, as the Lord’s walk to Calvary is brought to life, through narration, prayer, and music.

Based out of the St. Joseph’s Salesian Youth Renewal Center in Rosemead, California, the Living Stations of the Cross is a young adult/family ministry. The ministry will provide this presentation at various locations throughout the 2019 Lenten season.

All are Welcome!

EVANGELIZING YOUNG PEOPLE THROUGH OUTREACH PROGRAMS
Changing our paradigm on how we teach catechesis

For a while now, and with good reason, we provided formation and taught catechesis before we promoted social commitment in our catechetical programs; however, formation is needed to action. It was often agreed upon that first comes theory and then practice. We need “to be” to be able “to do”. The final document from the Synod on Youth is suggesting that today’s young people are different. They like to do things first, then to be able to reflect on what they have done, and finally consider who they can become. They do not learn by listening or studying theories, rather they learn by doing things, by being active, and by participating in a project. This fact underlies the notion that volunteer programs that serve people in need are ways to find God. These activities provide a space where young people can discern their vocational call.

Pope Francis is pushing this new idea of encountering Jesus through social commitment and volunteer programs. In a meeting with Jesuits in Colombia in 2017, a Jesuit asked how to renew Youth Ministry and the Pope gave the following answer:

We must put them in movement, in action. Now a days youth ministry in small groups and spending time in pure reflection does not work. We must provide meaningful activity for the young person. It does not matter if he/she is a believer. We need to challenge them to action. If they are believers, it will be easier to guide them. If they are not believers we have to allow life itself to change them, but only when they are in meaningful activity and well accompanied, without pushing our way, our thoughts, our agendas... just accompanying them in their volunteer effort. This can be working with the elderly or serving in any useful way... miracles happen.

If we put young people in meaningful ministry situations, we can enter into dynamics where our Lord could start talking to them and will start moving their hearts. We are not the ones who are going to move their hearts with arguments. However, we are going to move their minds when the heart has started to move.

In Cracovia a college student asked me: some of my friends are atheists. What do I need to tell them in order to convert them? This question showed me the sense of ecclesial militancy that this person had. My answer was clear: the last thing that you have to do is to “say something”. You need to start doing things together. Invite him to go with you to serve people and when he sees what you do, then you can start talking. What I tell you is that you need to engage young people in meaningful action. To create things where they can be protagonists and then ask questions like, what is happening? What has changed your heart? Why are you so happy? Let them share with you what they have felt and from there start to get them involved little by little. Now, we must have patience to sit with them and to listen to their questions. You need to be wise enough to know how to behave when the one who is questioning has infinite questions.

Did you know?

TO ESTABLISH CONFIDENCE WITH YOUR CHILDREN START WITH QUESTIONS ABOUT THEIR DAILY ACTIVITIES

Sometimes children will behave in a manner quite unusual for them – stress, misunderstanding, or some form of abuse can be related to such behaviors. If you see your child exhibiting unusual behavior, talk with your child about their day or recent experiences in an open-ended conversation. Do ask factual questions, such as, "What did you do today? Did you do anything unusual today? Who did you see today? Did anyone say or do anything that was unusual or even upsetting? Then, ask feeling questions as a follow-up, and remember that sometimes it’s easier for a child to talk about someone else’s feelings first. For more tips in the VIRTUS® article “Conversation Guidelines for Parents: Be Aware,” visit http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.

¿Sabía que?

PARA CREAR CONFIANZA CON SUS HIJOS, HABLE SOBRE SUS ACTIVIDADES DEL DÍA

A veces, los niños se comportan de una manera bastante extraña: el estrés, los malentendidos o algún tipo de abuso pueden estar relacionados con tales comportamientos. Si ve que su hijo/a muestra un comportamiento inusual, hable con él o ella abiertamente sobre el día o las experiencias recientes. Haga preguntas de los hechos del día, tales como: ¿Qué hiciste hoy? ¿Hiciste algo inusual hoy? ¿A quién viste hoy? ¿Alguien dijo o hizo algo que fuera inusual o incluso molesto? Luego, como seguimiento, hágale preguntas sobre sus sentimientos, y recuerde que a veces es más fácil para un/a niño/a hablar de los sentimientos de otra persona primero. Para obtener más sugerencias revise el artículo de VIRTUS® “Conversation Guidelines for Parents: Be Aware” (Pautas de conversación para padres de familia: Está atento/a), visite http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.
